Ladies and Gentlemen:

The undersigned has acted as counsel for Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities LLC (the “Company”), a New York limited liability company (the “Company”) in connection with the Company’s organization and application to become, a Participant in The Depository Trust Company (“DTC”), and has been asked to deliver to you this opinion in connection with the Company’s application to become a Participant in the DTC.

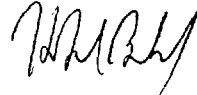

I have examined the Participant’s Agreement between the Company and DTC (the “Agreement”) and such other documents, records, instruments, and have considered such questions of law, as I have deemed necessary for the purpose of this opinion.

Based upon the foregoing, I am of the opinion that:

1. The Company is authorized to enter into and perform the Agreement. The execution, delivery and performance of the Agreement has been duly authorized by all requisite action on the part of the Company, and the Agreement has been duly executed and delivered to the DTC by the Company.
2. The choice of New York law to govern the Agreement, as set forth in such Agreement, is enforceable under New York principles of conflict of laws.
3. The Company is a broker-dealer registered under the Securities

Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

Very truly yours,

Re: Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities LLC

Ladies and Gentlemen:

The undersigned is counsel for Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities LLC (the "Company"), a New York limited liability company. The LLC has filed its Articles of Organization ("Articles.") The Articles provide that the Company will become effective January 1, 2001 (the "Effective Date.") Bernard L. Madoff, a sole proprietorship (the "Sole Proprietorship"), has, transferred all of the assets, subject to liabilities, associated with the business being conducted by the Sole Proprietorship to the Company on the Effective Date. Pursuant to your letter dated November 28, 2000 you asked for the undersigned's opinion with respect to the following:

- (a) Will any changes occur involving personnel essential to maintaining compliance with the Membership qualification standard as outlined in OCC's By-Laws (Article V, Section 1)?
- (b) Will the change within the Sole Proprietorship's organization affect the composition and quantity of excess net capital, as compared to the most recently filed FOCUS Report, with a statement date preceding the date on which the material change will be effected?

Based upon my review of applicable documents and law and the OCC's By-Laws, it is my opinion that the continuation of the business previously conducted by the Sole Proprietorship by the Company will neither result in a change referred to in (a) above nor have any effect upon the composition and quantity of excess net capital, as compared to the most recently filed FOCUS Report, with a statement date preceding the Effective Date.

Very truly yours,

H. DAVID BERKOWITZ

Attn: General Counsel

Ladies and Gentlemen:

The undersigned has acted as counsel for Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities LLC (the "Company"), a limited liability company organized under the laws of the State of New York, in connection with (i) the Member's Agreement dated January 1, 2001 (the "Member's Agreement") between the Company and National Securities Clearing Corporation ("NSCC") and (ii) the Clearing Fund Agreement dated January 1, 2001 (the "Clearing Fund Agreement") between the Company and NSCC, (collectively, the "Agreements").

In arriving at the opinions expressed below, the undersigned has examined and relied on the following documents:

- (a) a copy of the Member's Agreement as executed by the Company;
- (b) a copy of the Clearing Fund Agreement as executed by the Company; and
- (c) a copy of the Rules of NSCC (the "NSCC Rules") in effect as of the date hereof.

The undersigned has also examined and relied on the originals or copies certified or otherwise identified to the undersigned's satisfaction of all such corporate records and such other instruments and other certificates of public officials, officers and representatives of the Company and such other persons, and have made such investigations of law, as the undersigned has deemed necessary and appropriate as a basis for the opinions expressed below.

On the basis of and subject to the foregoing, it is the undersigned's opinion that:

1. The Company is a limited liability company organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of New York and has the power to execute, deliver and perform the Agreements in accordance with their terms.

2. The Company has taken all necessary action to authorize the execution, delivery and performance of the Agreements, and the Agreements have been duly executed and delivered by the Company.
3. Each of the Agreements is a legal, valid, binding and enforceable obligation of the Company, except as may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally and general principles of equity (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in a proceeding in equity or at law.)

The undersigned expresses no opinion other than as to the Federal law of the United States of America and the law of the State of New York.

The undersigned is furnishing this opinion to you solely for your benefit as a party to the Agreements. This opinion is not to be used, circulated, quoted or otherwise referred to for any other purpose.
